

Holland Area Beekeepers Association Bee School

When: Saturday, February 11, 2017

Where: GVSU - Meijer Campus (515 S. Waverly Road, Holland)

Time: Doors open at 8 AM with sessions beginning at 8:30. We'll break for lunch (bring your own or we'll have a list of local restaurants available) and the day will wrap up around 4:45 PM.

Cost: Adults - $50 (includes $10 in Bee Bucks to be spent at the vendor booths on 2/11)
Students $25

Sessions will include detailed information needed to get started as a beekeeper in Michigan, including bee biology, bee equipment assembly demonstrations, and bee handling methodology.

Several vendors will be selling beekeeping supplies throughout the day.

The HABA members are encouraged by your interest in honeybees and our goal is to provide a foundation towards success as you explore the rewarding world of beekeeping.

Contact info@hollandbees.org with any questions.

Online registration available via PayPal at www.hollandbees.org

-----Share below with a friend!-----

Holland Area Beekeepers Association Bee School

When: Saturday, February 11, 2017

Where: GVSU - Meijer Campus (515 S. Waverly Road, Holland)

Time: Doors open at 8 AM with sessions beginning at 8:30. We'll break for lunch (bring your own or we'll have a list of local restaurants available) and the day will wrap up around 4:45 PM.

Cost: Adults - $50 (includes $10 in Bee Bucks to be spent at the vendor booths on 2/11)
Students $25

Sessions will include detailed information needed to get started as a beekeeper in Michigan, including bee biology, bee equipment assembly demonstrations, and bee handling methodology.

Several vendors will be selling beekeeping supplies throughout the day.

The HABA members are encouraged by your interest in honeybees and our goal is to provide a foundation towards success as you explore the rewarding world of beekeeping.

Contact info@hollandbees.org with any questions.

Online registration available via PayPal at www.hollandbees.org